Our hearts are bleeding. You're the brother we could ever ask for. The smiles and laughter we had have been shuttered and replaced with tears. Nothing can replace you.

Willy was outgoing. He wanted to be a great person, an electrical engineer, and a great footballer who wanted to change his family and community.

We will miss our Lukaku. A rose has been plucked from the garden. Dance with the angels brother.

Tribute from brother

Mike Kahuga, 28

To the world, he was a passionate and successful fashion designer, creating timeless pieces that embodied elegance and creativity. But to me, he was so much more.

He was my son, a protective shield over our family, always ensuring we felt safe and loved. He was a fighter, standing up for justice and equality, paying the ultimate prize during peaceful demonstrations. His bravery and commitment will never be forgotten.

7 DAYS JOURNEY TO THE NEW SABA SABA NATIONAL VIGIL FOR OUR FALLEN HEROES

Gen-Z, Millennials, Gen-X and All Citizens will spend the next 7 days preparing for #Occupy rallies countrywide. The New Saba Saba is a citizen-led push to tangible REFORMS for a better Kenya, the 3rd Liberation.

- 1. July 1st Monday, For the Flag: In honour of those who have lost their lives fighting for a better Kenya. Share flag pictures. Hang the Kenyan flag everywhere - outside your gates, balconies, cars, PSVs, shops, everywhere. Dress code: colours of the flag.
- 2. July 2nd Tuesday, IPOA day: with support from The Police Reforms Working Group, visit IPOA to present grievances on police brutality and killing us. Thereafter issue notice for peaceful Saba Saba Rally on Sunday.
- 3. July 3rd Wednesday, Day of Shame: Name and shame individuals in Zakayo's government who have featured in all manner of scandals, before and after their appointments. Indeed, his administration is a den of thieves, and the world should be reminded of that.
- 4. July 4th Thursday, Day of Mothers: Gathering at Jevanjee Gardens and elsewhere around the country, in solidarity with our Mothers who have lost their children and those families who lost their Mothers in the struggle for a better Kenya.
- 5. July 5th Friday, Day of Fathers: Gathering at the Dedan Kimathi statue and elsewhere around the country in solidarity with our Fathers who have lost their children and those families who lost their Fathers in the struggle for a better Kenya.
- 6. July 6th Saturday, Sabasaba Mega Concert at a venue to be confirmed, plus live stream on Youtube and other online platforms.
- 7. July 7th Sunday Saba Saba Vigils: Nairobi citizens gather at Kimathi Statue and march to Nyayo House and keep a vigil outside the building. Also have countrywide vigils in all the 47 counties.

Am so hurt by all that's been happening in this country. Of Kenyan people dumped in a quarry. Of bodies in floating waters. Of Impunity and lawlessness . We are fed up. This is the beginning of the end. Truly. No more pain.
